

Do not weaken this bill. It is a pleasure to answer my phone now. It is a pleasure to eat dinner without the telemarketer calling at that hour. Consumers should be able to control who they want to receive calls from. I like the law the way it is.